TWENTIETH SUNDAY OF THE YEAR (C)

Dear Parishioners,

The 'A' Level Results are now out and we do hope that all who did the Exams will have achieved what they need for the future. I stopped my car on Thursday as I was leaving the Church to see one of the Students walking down the road with a big smile on his face. He was able to tell me that he had done very well. I was thrilled to hear the news and congratulated him on his success and hard work. He told me that he going to the University of his first choice. I wished him and all who have been successful every Blessing and success. This week we have the G.C.S.E. results and again we will keep you all in our prayers and hope you all achieve what you need for your future developments.

FR. PAUL DYNAN The Parish Priest of Stanford le Hope and Tilbury will be retiring at the end of October 2019 because of ill health. We ask you please to keep him in your prayers. Fr. Paul was a great friend of Fr. Brian O Higgins, a former Parish priest here, and many of you might have met Fr. Paul on his visits to Fr. Brian here in East Ham. We pray too for the Parishioners of Stanford le Hope and Tilbury as they are loosing a very good harding working Parish Priest. We ask you all to pray for more Vocations for the Priesthood in the Diocese of Brentwood as we are really in great need for more Priests.

JOAQUIM CAITON COLACO RIP: who was one of our Parishioners died suddenly at home last Friday of a Heart attack. He leaves is wife Gracy, twin boys and a younger brother. It was a tremendous shock to them all and as a Parish we need to support them with our prayers.

SPECIAL NEEDS BAR B Q: will be held next Saturday. This is normally a very successful time for our people with Special Needs. We are holding it in the School Hall from 1.00pm to 5.00pm. We normally hold it in the garden, in the evening after the 6.00pm Mass, but being so late in August, the light goes down by 8.30pm and so we decided to have it in the afternoon. The last one we had, at this time, was a couple of weeks ago and was very successful so I thought it would be great to do the same this time. Let us hope the weather will be okay, for those who will be doing the cooking, everyone else will be indoors.

GOD BLESS, Bob
